

PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

OF IRELAND

The Presbyterian Historical Society of Ireland

invites you to the launch of the book

“Frederick – The Life of My Missionary Grandfather in Manchuria”

by Mark O'Neill

on Thursday 28 June 2012

at 7.30 pm

in The Chapel of Union Theological College,

108 Botanic Avenue, Belfast BT7 1JT

Afterwards there will be a lecture on the Life of the Rev Frederick W.S. O'Neill

The Very Rev Frederick W. S. O'Neill, 1870 - 1952, an Irish Presbyterian missionary, and Moderator of the General Assembly 1936, served in Faku, Manchuria, northeast China, from 1897 to 1942. He was awarded the Order of the Striped Tiger by the Chinese government for his work with the Chinese Labour Corps of 96,000 people who assisted the Allied Forces in France and Belgium from 1917 to 1919.

RSVP by Friday 22 June 2012

to The Presbyterian Historical Society of Ireland

Email: phsilibrarian@pcinet.org

Telephone: 028 9072 7330